CAMP LIFE AT LAND'S END.

Letter From a Member of Capt. Gray's Company.

HOW THEY SPEND THEIR TIME.

Sleeping on the River Bank Where the Sea Breeze Wafts the Pesky Mosquitoes Away.

Camp, Lands End.
Port Royal, S. C., July 30.

We arrived here on the 18th of this month at two o'clock a. m. The boys seem to be enjoying themselves and having a lot of sport. We have only one objection and that is the mosquitoes. They are so bad it is impossible to sleep at night. Most of the boys do their sleeping in the day time and stay up at night. We have fires all down the company street at night and they afford us some protection.

We are on the St. Helena Island, at a new United States fort now under construction. The nearest post office is Port Royal, which is about five miles up the river. This part of the island is inhabited altogether by negroes. It is said there are 6,000 negroes and 150 white people on the island. I have seen only three white persons here who were not employed by the government.

The boys have good times fishing, bathing, and sailing on the river. They say every day is Sunday here. We only drill one hour a day, from six to seven, p. m. As far back as six miles this island is all swamp, that is as far as we have been able to get as yet, but a trip is planned for Sunday clear across, which is ten miles. It is only a short trip to Beaufort, which is a very nice little place to spend the day. Sometimes we go on the United States tugs and some time in sail boats.

There is a small passenger boat that leaves the camp at 8:30 a. m. and returns at 3:30 p. m., just 35 cents for round trip. Several of the boys go up to town every day. We have just received the report that Company G of the Second Regiment was to join us and of course we are delighted at the news.

A few of the boys have abandoned their tents and built small houses which give much more satisfaction. The tents we have are not the best any way; a good many of them leak so bad it is impossible to keep dry and just now is the rainy season here.

One thing the boys enjoy here which they did not at Raleigh, we have no guard line or guard houses; we can go where we please within a radius of one mile of camp. If we want to go further we have only to apply for leave of absence which is always granted.

The negroes here can hardly make themselves understood. Some of them peddle bread and fish in camp. They say, "Three breads and two fish, five cents." If you want six biscuits and four fish you must buy twice, as they will not sell but three biscuits and three fish for ten cents.

We relieved Co. E, of the Fifth regiment, U. S. regulars, when we came here and they went to Key West, Fla., to join their regiment, which, I believe, is to go Porto Rico. I guess we are doomed to spend our two years down here with the black grubs and mosquitoes. But I hope we will soon get used to them, and the croaking of the frogs. We get a pretty steady sea breeze which is one pleasure to us. We are about nine miles from the Atlantic coast.

We have a few boys here who keep in mischief enough to keep the company in high spirit. I don't think any of our boys ever have the blues. We are about one and a half miles from and below the naval station. Our boys visit the Nantuxet, which is anchored near us, right often. Her crew is from Wilmington, N. C., and a very nice crowd of young men.

Our mail arrives daily at 4 p. m. and leaves at noon. We get very little news here. We have so much to think about and to amuse ourselves, that most of us do not give the papers much thought.

Four mules for Co. D arrived on the steamer Pilot Bay from Savannah yesterday evening. They are all young—the oldest is only seven, but they are very well broken and work together. I see several of the boys with their blankets now going down to the beach, as the breeze keeps the mosquitoes blown back. I have no further news of interest and will close.

Yours very respectfully,

Chas. H. Powell.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C., Aug. 1, '98.

The Welbourn property on corner of English and Ingram streets, was sold at auction Saturday to Mr. Lee Payne.

If the town authorities could have seen the number of wagons that were standing crossways of Main street Saturday, we believe they would lose no time in removing all the hitching posts on the street, for at least one block below.

We regret very much that an American citizen, bred and born Tarheel and nearer still, a business man in this city should be so thoughtless as to say that "no gentleman would go to the war." He needs to be taught a lesson in patriotism.

There was a young man in the city yesterday wearing a soldiers uniform who gave his name as Zeb Johnson, of Western North Carolina and claiming that he had enlisted in Co. L of the Second regiment and that he had lost his health and received an honorable discharge and was without means to get home on. A collection was taken up and a ticket bought for him and he left on last night's train.

Many friends were at the depot this morning to bid farewell to Claude C. Barbee, formerly manager of the Telegram Bureau at this place, who left to join the First regiment N. C. V. with the 7th army corps under General Fitzhugh Lee at Jacksonville. We trust he will make a gallant soldier and return as sound as he is today.

Chas. Morris, James Hyatt and John Johnson left Saturday night for Jacksonville to join the First regiment.

TRINITY ENDORSED.

Resolutions Adopted by the Shelby District Conference.

The Shelby District Conference, in session at Lincolnton, passed resolutions as copied below endorsing Trinity College:

Resolved, 1st. That, rejoicing at the large measure of success that has come to our district schools and church colleges, we heartily recommend them to our people as worthy of their fullest confidence within the limits of their respective courses; that we heartily endorse the board of trustees of Trinity College, and its president, in their efficient management of our institutions; and we thank Mr. Washington Duke and Mr. B. N. Duke for their munificent gifts that are aiding so materially its development.

2nd. That the origination and circulation of recent slanders upon our college and its president emphasizes the necessity that men only of known sympathy with it shall be appointed upon its board of trustees, as editors of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, and upon the Conference board of education, and we recommend to the annual Conference the rigid requirement of this standard in the men that it shall select for these important duties, believing, as we do, that no institution can live in the hands of its enemies. Sleepy But Happy.

Bogart's excursion returned from Wilmington Sunday morning at 2:08. Of course the excursionists were sleepy at that hour but they report a most enjoyable trip. The best feature of the trip was the ten mile ride out to sea on the steamer Wilmington. All the party but three got seasick, but after a little while were all right and in a condition to enjoy the trip. Many of the excursionists remained in Wilmington until today and came up this afternoon on the passenger train.

WILL PUSH WAR TO LAST HOUR

Hurrying Forces to Reinforce General Miles.

FEELING OF PEACE IS GROWING.

Ambassador Cambon Has Transmitted the United States' Reply to the Madrid Authorities.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, August 1—Fifteen thousand soldiers are to be sent to Porto Rico to reinforce General Miles immediately. It is the determination of the government to push the war as strenuously as possible up to the last minute when armistice is declared.

General Wade has been ordered to take command of the reinforcements and has been detached from the command of the camp at Chickamauga for that purpose. He and his staff are now on the way to Washington with instructions that the reinforcements are to consist of fifteen regiments.

It is understood that General Lee will be sent to Porto Rico with the Seventh army corps, which has been engaged in completing its organization at Jacksonville.

General Coppinger will command the Tampa force. General Brooke, with 6,000 men, are due at Porto Rico today. It is expected that within a fortnight over 40,000 troops will be operating in Porto Rico.

HOPEFUL OF A PEACE TREATY.

Washington, August 1—The president and some members of the cabinet are hopeful that a peace treaty will eventually result from the overtures made by Spain and the terms submitted in reply.

SPAIN'S OVERTURES ANSWERED.

Washington, August 1—Ambassador Cambon immediately sent to Spain the government note in answer to the overtures made by that government.

The president looks for an answer by Wednesday. Some members of the cabinet do not deny the report that upon Cambon has been conferred the office of plenipotentiary for the Spanish. The feeling of peace is becoming general, and already the names of commissioners for the United States are being talked of, the latest being mention are Woodford, former minister to Spain, and Richard Olney, but there are no official grounds for the report.

SPANISH PLATE OF HASH.

Madrid, Aug 1—French, German and Austrian Ambassadors had a conference with the Spanish minister of foreign affairs yesterday. The result is unknown.

Advices from Havana say the Cuban blockade is maintained in the most vigorous manner. Sansverino Mentanzos is reported to have been bombarded by warships. The report also says a force of four hundred American infantry and cavalry attacked a detachment of Spanish engineers at Graciosa and were repulsed, leaving ten men dead on the field. The Spanish loss is one officer and two men wounded.

Sympathy for Bereaved Germany.

Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Berlin, August 1—The United States Ambassador has received a cable from Washington charging him to express to the bereaved nation and also the family of the deceased, the sorrow which the government and people of the United States feel in the death of Prince Bismarck.

SPRINKLER HORSES RUN AWAY.

They Do Some Damage in Their Mad Flight.

This morning about 10 o'clock the horses hitched to the street sprinkler were left standing near the public pump in front of Jeffrey's store on South Elm street and when the driver was off started to run. A train was passing across the street and the gates were down, but this did not stop the horses. They ran around the train before the gates had been raised and the sprinkler struck one end of the gate, breaking it completely off and rendering it useless. The end of the gate on the other side was broken off. The horses next turned into Depot street, turned the sprinkler over and broke loose from it. The black horse, belonging to the Protector Hose Company was thrown by the single-tree at the corner of Depot and Davie streets and was going at such a speed that he slid all the way across Davie. He regained his feet without stopping, but was unable to turn and ran into a window of Cunningham Bros' office. One shutter of the window was broken, the lower sash knocked out and the glass broken into bits. Harry Cunningham was in the office and what he did in the way of getting out "was a plenty." Both the horses received several cuts and the black horse was somewhat bruised by his slide on the cobble stones.

LET DECENCY SPEAK.

If the decency of North Carolina doesn't speak at the ballot box next November, it will be because decency is asleep. Men of all parties who have the honor of North Carolina at heart and who prize the good name of the commonwealth above a place on the state's pay roll are asked to keep in mind the shameful conditions existing as to the penitentiary management.

Closely following this we have another chapter of shame and degradation brought to light through the resignation of J. W. Bailey as a member of the Board of Commissioners of Agriculture of North Carolina, which we print elsewhere. This letter is commended to the careful consideration of honest and sincere men of all parties. It discloses the rottenness and villainy of the management in that department.

Mr. Bailey is editor of the Biblical Recorder, the organ of the great Baptist church in North Carolina, and occupying this position acceptably, nothing further can be said to give weight to his words. We specially commend to your notice that part of his letter in which he gives his reasons for resigning.

Just here the Morning Post exclaims: "And such reasons! What a chapter of shame and degradation, ignorance and worse, is revealed! A department which could be of great usefulness to the class for whom it was specially established, not only made an agency for paying party debts by the appointment of ignoramus or servile partisans to important positions, but a refuge for others who have proven, according to the Governor's own admission, incompetent, corrupt and scandalous in other positions."

Farmers of North Carolina, behold the condition of the department—the only state department—which is supposed to look exclusively after your interest! How do you like it?

By whose votes was this chapter of shame and degradation brought about? Study the situation. Remember that John R. Smith's management of the penitentiary—the place for condemned criminals—was so palpably incompetent, aye, dishonest, that even Russell, the kusser, couldn't stand it and he swapped him off. If the charges quoted as coming directly from the governor are true, the ends of justice would have been more clearly met if Mr. Smith had been given a position behind the bars; but instead of this he was placed at the head of the agricultural department to manage the affairs in which the great farming population of North Carolina is directly interested. Could Russell offer a grander insult to the agricultural masses?

If these things do not bottle up the fusionists and secure them with a rubber stopper, to what length will the decency of North Carolina allow them to go?

PLACING THE BLAME.

The Charlotte Observer, taking its cue from a recent editorial paragraph in this paper says:

The Greensboro Telegram quotes "Capt. Walters" as saying in a speech before the recent democratic convention of the fifth congressional district, that the eight negro members of the last legislature were the most respectable men in that body outside of the democratic members. The Capt. Walters in question was, if we mistake not one of the members of the lower house of the last legislature from Rockingham.

If we are right about this it must be granted that he had exceptionally good opportunities for judging of the respectability of the members of that body, and if he is right it would seem to be the proper thing to stop shelling the "niggers" and turn our guns on the security of white men whom Capt. Walters says are not as good as they.

We hope, by the by, that we are not to have a campaign of flannel-mouthed denunciation of Russell, Pritchard and the "niggers" and of silence as to Butler, Ayer, Thompson and their co-conspirators. Russell, Pritchard and the "niggers" are better men any day in the week than Butler, than whom no man of this generation has done so much to lower the tone of public thought in North Carolina, or dealt out aspersions with so lavish a hand.

If we are going to attempt to carry the state by exhibiting to the people the deplorable condition into which it has been brought, the responsibility for this condition needs to be placed where it properly belongs—not entirely with the "niggers," who constitute but a third of our population, and that the most poorest and ignorant third, but the white faced devils who have conspired against the name and fame of North Carolina and have merely used the black men as stepping stones to the accomplishments of their ends.

As a matter of course the democratic party needs the populist vote, but it does not need it at the cost of extenuating the crimes of the leaders who have betrayed the populist masses along with all the balance of us.

The Observer is right. Capt. Walters is a member of the legislature from Rockingham. The Observer has brought out the idea we had in mind when quoting Capt. Walters. The blame clearly belongs on the Butler, Ayer and Thompson contingent, without whose aid Russell, Pritchard and the "niggers" would have been powerless. We have not one word of censure or blame for the negroes. They are entitled, by virtue of the promises made them by the republicans, to everything they have received in the way of offices. The blame rests on the traitors to good government who made it possible for the "less respectable than negroes" crowd to control the North Carolina legislature.

MR. BAILEY'S RESIGNATION.

He Talks Plain to Governor Russell, the Kusser.

Raleigh, N. C., July 28, '98. To His Excellency, Governor D. L. Russell, Raleigh, N. C.

My Dear Sir: I hereby resign my commission as a member of the board of commissioners of agriculture of North Carolina.

It is due you, our people and myself that I make known my reasons for this action.

When you tendered me the position I accepted it against my personal desire and interest with the single motive of serving our commonwealth. Experience has relentlessly impressed it upon me that this is impossible on the present board under the present administration.

By your will Mr. John R. Smith was made commissioner of agriculture in my absence from this city. On my return I went to see you and inquired why you had this done; and you informed me that you had to do it in order to get Mr. Smith out of the office of superintendent of the state's prison, as under administration of that office our State was suffering the disgrace of personal scandal and financial loss by corruption, and that you, having failed to get him out of that office by direct measures, having exerted yourself to the utmost, had resorted to the plan of exchanging the office of Commissioner for that of superintendent, because in the department of agriculture there was little opportunity to do anything, good or evil.

I then inquired if you were under obligation to keep Mr. Smith in the office of commissioner for the full term and if you would help me to have him removed at the next meeting of the board. You declared to me that you were under no obligation whatever to Mr. Smith and you gave me to believe that you would be glad to lend me your influence in opposition to him. With this understanding I kept silent, enduring the reproach of being a member of a board which had become party to a bargain whereby the department of agriculture was put into the hands of a man publicly charged with being unfit for the public trust of superintendent of the state's prison, until the board met in the month of June 1898. Then I moved against Commissioner Smith. But I failed to realize the weight of your influence, with which I think I would have been easily successful in my effort to remove the reproach from the Department of Agriculture.

This is my first reason for resigning and my conclusive reason for making this resignation public.

Again I would not fail to mention that the disposition of some of the members of the board to hold sessions of three or four days' duration—being paid by the day—several times a year to perform duties which would require scarcely four hours has disgusted me time and again.

Finally, it is my opinion that the department of agriculture is the sheerest example that we have of paternalism run to seed; that is to say that, paternalistic in conception it has grown into an institution for the rewarding of political workers, with little purpose of public good.

I accepted the office with good will toward you, reason that without regard to prejudices it was my duty to help you as the chief servant of our people. I have done the best I could only to discover that my efforts are defeated. The best service I can now render, all concerned, is to resign and make known my reasons, the necessity for which I regret more than I would endeavor to have you believe.

Sincerely,
J. W. Bailey.

PRESIDENT ALDERMAN,
Chapel Hill, N. C.

About one month ago my child, which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. Boggs, Stumptown, Gilmer Co., W. Va. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Tumor In the Breast Cured

Six or seven years ago I had a lump so known to come in my breast which made it swell so much that it became so hard I could not make a dent in the breast. It was so painful and caused me to suffer so that some nights
I could hardly turn in the bed or rest.
Nothing did me any good, and I was very uneasy, not knowing how it would terminate. I used one-half dozen bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, without stopping on it, and it made a perfect cure of me. The lump disappeared gradually and I have never had any trouble from it since.

Carlyle's Rhapsomancy.
Joachim, the great violinist, was introduced to Carlyle by a mutual friend.
The sage was about to take his morning walk, and he asked Joachim to accompany him. During a very long walk in Hyde park Carlyle kept the conversation running on Germany and its great men —until at last Joachim thought it was his turn to take a lead, and he started with the inquiry, "Do you know Stern-dale Bennett?"
"No," was the reply, and, after a pause, "I don't care generally for musicians; they are an empty, windy baggy sort of people."

Playing Gooseberry.
Playing gooseberry or "to play gooseberry" is common enough in connection with sweethearts. A lass arranges a walk with a lad, but for some reason she does not care to go alone, so she takes a friend, another girl, and the friend "plays gooseberry." Sometimes the girl who is invited to share the walk refuses, saying, "Nay, I'm not going to play gooseberry." The girls speak of the lad in this connection as "gooseberry fool." By the way, green gooseberries stewed with a little water, mashed, and sugar added, constitute "gooseberry fool." —Notes and Queries.

Just in Time.
A butcher's lad went to deliver some meat at a certain house in Newcastle where a fierce dog is kept. The lad entered the back yard, and as soon as the dog saw him he pinned him against the wall. In a short time the mistress of the house ran out and drove the animal away. "Has he bitten you?" she asked.
"No," said the lad, "as kept him off by giving him your snout, as you just came in time to save the beef." —London Fun.

A New York surgeon of a statistical frame of mind says that the expenses of palatial St. Luke's Hospital are so heavy and the interest on the investment is so large that the inmates, say 2,500 for one year, could be boarded at first-class hotels and attended by the best doctors and nurses at a considerable annual saving. St. Luke's is the costliest institution of its kind in New York, and it has an endowment fund of nearly $1,000,000.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood.
Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it.

The Carolina Shoe Co. commences today their great August clearing sale of men's, ladies and children's low cut shoes. Mr. Norris, the hustling manager, says the low prices he has put on these goods will fairly make the money jump out of your purse.

The Baptist Young Peoples' Union will have for its subject tonight: "Some sound-waves from a convention of Baptist young people with over 12,000 registered delegates." The great assembly at Buffalo, N. Y., last month of the vigorous, intelligent and consecrated young manhood and womanhood of America was one of the most inspiring christian conventions ever held and should be studied with profit to all. The meeting is at 8:15 at West Washington street church. You are cordially invited to attend.

He Came Back to Greensboro.

George Bynum, a Greensboro negro, was in High Point Saturday and after holding a long conversation with a bottle of whiskey as to the plan of attack, decided that, with its aid, he could take the city by storm. He then started out, proclaiming to everybody that he was the "bully" of the town. Officer Bennett soon taught him better by placing a pair of bracelets on his wrists and relieving him of a pistol and razor, which were found in his pockets.

Bynum was brought here yesterday and placed in jail.

Firemen!

There will be a meeting of the fire department on Thursday evening, August 4th, at 8:15 o'clock, in the hall of Steamer Co. No. 1. Every member is expected to be present, as business of importance will come before the department—appointing committees, etc. for the coming tournament.

Troops Passed Here Last Night Going Southward.

The last of the Second Regiment has left Raleigh and all the companies have been assigned to duty on the South Carolina coast. The last companies to leave Raleigh passed through here last night enroute to St. Simon's Island, near Brunswick, Ga. They are Company K, Wilmington; Company B, Rutherfordton; Company L, Nantahala, and Company H, Asheville. Company G, of Gastonia, was ordered to join Capt. Gray's company at Port Royal, S. C.

The train which passed over the Southern was made up of fourteen cars. Col. Burgwyn and staff and the regimental band go with the four companies to St. Simon's Island. The band played "Dixie" and several marches while the train stopped here, which brought loud cheers from the large crowd who had gathered at the depot to bid the boys good-bye.

A Hustler.

From the interest manifested by our citizens in West's excursion to Norfolk, Washington and Baltimore on August 16th, and the great display of advertising done by its hustling manager, we predict a grand and successful trip for Mr. West, and he well deserves it, as all his past excursions have proven so satisfactory that he has gained an enviable reputation as excursion manager.

A War Chicken.

Clarence Borgart reports that they have a chicken at his home, on Church street, with four distinct legs and a curly tail. The chicken uses only two of his legs but carries the other two as sort of a reserve. Clarence thinks it is a war chicken and probably expected to have a few legs shot off. The report of the "oldest citizen" is anxiously awaited.
